Persönliches

Aktivitäten:

Are you kidding? I'm a full time working high school art teacher for the last couple of decades or so... (Man I'm so friggin old...) and a mom? Activities?! You're funny!

However, coz I dream "real big"...(LOL) I make music videos <SILLYHEART@!> -no spaces in the whole thing - on Utube and imagine I am a serious song writer and that people would actually like my music who weren't my friends (love you guys!) :>)

When I have 12-14 songs written and recorded, I'm gonna put them all together and make an album/video album (ideally sometime before I croak in my mid 90's -that's the plan anywho...(more LOL)

Interessen:

Art, Music, writing and dancing, gardening and hanging with my kids, Shawna and Matthew. I like Pina Coladas and getting caught in the rain. I am not into Yoga and have too much on my brain. I dream of ove at midnight on the beach, by the sea shore waves. I'm sure that I hear music that no one else hears and I'm likely somewhat ... insane.

Lieblingsmusik:

country/folk /retro (80's mix) coz I really liked my big hair. I like it all (jazz, big band, bluegrass) except that crap my daughter listens too that gives me a headache, but some of her stuff is Ok.

Lieblingsfernseh- sendungen:

No time -kids keep me busy. Get to watch Tree house a lot. I do like Ghost whisperer.

Lieblingsfilme:

Romantic Comedies (I'm a chick) and quite a variety of movies. Classic black and whites. Any thing with Mel Gibson :>) -young Mel even better. I like animated features (teach media art) and as long as I'm on the couch snuggling with the kids in my fuzzy bath robe and bunny slippers, eating popcorn, it doesn't really matter which movie we're watching.

I gotta watch whatever the kids pick out. I'm so burned out by the weekend, i can hardly stay conscious anyway so most movies are played out in my dreams.

Lieblingsbücher:

The bible is a good one. The Book of Kells?! (that came 1000 years later though -good pictures and writing. Might go see it if I'm in Ireland one day.I taught English for a decade once so I'm kinda open to quite a few of them.

Lieblingszitate:

-"Nothing was your own except the few cubic centimetres in your head." Orwell's 1984

-"The Serentiy Prayer"

-Just love so many of them coz they sound so darn smart :>) but if your looking for wisdom that I have found in music then:

"God Bless the Broken Road..." (Rascal Flatts)

"Can't Get There From Here" (can't remember the name of the band)

Really I just make them up. No egg-head knows absolutely everything.

Über mich:

I came. I saw. I drew. (sometimes I make up quotes -I know tha's wrong....-Just kinda work (as a teacher) all the time and what time I have I spend with the hubby and kids (and wishin that the house was cleaner) and like a few decades went by. Isn't that how it goes?! I dunno. Spend my off time in Florida and that's my sanity and carrot on a stick for me to keep up the grind of everyday life.
